

Who is Edith Cowan College?

Edith Cowan College (ECC) was established in 1994 (as Perth Institute of Business and Technology – the founding college of Navitas Limited) in a partnership arrangement with Edith Cowan University (ECU). ECC provides pathways for students wishing to complete a Higher Education qualification.

Commencing 1 October 2016, Navitas entered into a 50:50 joint venture agreement with ECU and PIBT was renamed Edith Cowan College, marking closer ties between the two institutions.

Mission: To provide high quality education services that lead to success in ECU and beyond

Vision: We innovate, we educate; futures begin at ECC

Core Values:

- Conviction to our purpose and potential
- Drive towards achieving and advancing together
- Adventurous in mind and spirit
- Rigour in enhancing our professional reputation and credibility
- Genuine in the way we behave and deliver
- Respect shown by celebrating, valuing and caring for people and the environment

Located on ECU's Joondalup and Mount Lawley campuses, ECC provides higher education pathway programs, English language courses and international study tours to domestic and international students. ECC also provide IELTS Testing and Pearson Testing services to the general public.

Regulatory Approvals:

Institutional Registration:

The Australian regulator for Higher Education – Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA) has approved ECC registration as a Non-University Higher Education Provider (NUHEP). ECC is listed on the TEQSA National Register at: <http://www.teqsa.gov.au/national-register/provider/prv12166>

ECC is also approved to provide educational services to international students and is listed on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) at: <http://cricos.education.gov.au/Institution/InstitutionDetails.aspx?ProviderCode=01312J>

Course Accreditation:

TEQSA has accredited the following ECC Higher Education courses:
